

Recruitment and Commercial Consultant

Good morning

Permit me to explain you my skills

I can develop commercial plans in italian area especially in the north west . Since 1992 my job started in the packaging fields is evolved in commercial adviser in all the logistic issues . For me Every firms in the piemonte areas became a potential customers and the point of view of the warehouses is a very good for survey the area in a customer research. I was also the editor of a magazine specialized in little Italian firms and manufacturing mills where we have published about the productive networks in the Italian systems .
