Presentation: Giovanni Guido, co-owner of Erregi Representatives since 1992. His activity is also to seek the best companies to bring them in to the market Piemontese, especially with the aim of developing commercial projects. Representativ Agent since 1989, has developed results both in terms of supplies, and on the sale of plants for investment classic and the services area.

The commercial land covered is 'the Piedmont area", with special attention to areas of BI VB and VC NO Ao. In this area, our philosophy and 'to "dredge" the market to seek out every opportunity that optimizes the TIME employed by us to get research desired from you , combined with some tools built on years of experience and often underused by our colleagues. We see the tools.

After graduation thesis on "The Italian Industrial District", for 10 years and 'was drawn up a magazine tecnocommerciale GBT General Business Today. This magazine reflected in our introduction to logistics companies, addressing all aspects and problems of modern warehouses, thus allowing us' to know ALL of the local business issues and the manifacturing arguments. The same magazine 'was the basis for the development of 16 websites perfectly active and readily available for any market research that requires optimization of resources and time. The magazine has allowed us to develop an operational team trained to communicate.

We have also improved our communication skills and envolve ourselves in activities That develop sensitivity in Bringing the parties to a goal, for example through the Mediation - Mediation, activities for Which We are enabled at Camera of Commerce and also we are registered in the registers of the Ministry of Justice. Although not Directly inherent in the business of selling and 'still a form of exercise That Provides Evidence That attitudes seller is constantly in training

At your disposal to confront on the ground of market opportunities. Do not hesitate to contact us. Sincerely Giovanni Guido Mobile 339 6841758.
